LOOKING TOWARD REFORM—GOV. ALVORD FINDS THAT "NOTHING HAS BEEN DONE"—"THE STATE JUDICIARY"—TAMPERING WITH THE BILLS—THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S CORRUPTION—THE RAILROAD BILL—BANKING REGULATION—THE PRINTING BUSINESS—METROPOLITAN RAILROADS.

[FROM THE SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.]
ALBANY, Jan. 30.—The Assembly held two sessions and disposed of a large number of bills. The Committee of the Judiciary reported on the bill to amend the Judiciary. He considered good laws put on the table against them for misconduct was ordered to a third reading: after being amended on motion of Thomas C. Fields so as to apply to every city court in the State. The title of the bill was amended to read: "An act for the protection of taxpayers against the frauds, embezzlements, and wrongful acts of public officers and agents in the several cities and counties of this State."

In the course of some remarks on this bill, Gov. Alvord said that it was late for the Legislature to pile statute on statute unless they began at the bottom and root out the evil on the Judiciary. He considered good laws put on the table against them for misconduct was ordered to a third reading: after being amended on motion of Thomas C. Fields so as to apply to every city court in the State. The title of the bill was amended to read: "An act for the protection of taxpayers against the frauds, embezzlements, and wrongful acts of public officers and agents in the several cities and counties of this State."

The resolution calling on Gov. Hoffman for any information he may have regarding the fraudulent changes in the text of the bill was adopted. The Judiciary Committee was then up and adopted. The Judiciary Committee was then up and adopted. The Judiciary Committee was then up and adopted.

The Assembly heard the first argument to-day on the Attorney-General's bill to facilitate suits against corporations. Mr. Barlow presented a substitute which omitted some defects in the original bill. He spoke in favor of the bill at some length, denying that it gave him any more power than was conferred by existing laws on the Department of Insurance, and Superintendent of the Bank Department.

He hoped that the bill would be reported without unnecessary delay. As a reply to Gov. Barlow was made by Judge Ramsey, who asserted that the desired acts by books could be obtained by processes already provided by the laws of the State. Being called upon by Mr. Hall to tell how this information could be obtained, he gave no satisfactory answer. His principal argument was that it put too much power into the hands of one man, and that the Attorney-General would be enabled by its provisions to extract secrets from a corporation which could be sold at a high price. This discussion was not concluded as it was found that Mr. Barlow had been retained to open the bill, and could not be present before next week.

The Committee postponed further argument until a week from next Friday, when the bill hearing will be had. The Assembly Committee on Banks had a discussion this morning upon a bill to make $3,000 the maximum deposit by an individual in any savings bank; to limit the rate of interest to be paid to depositors to five per cent, unless the bank should have a surplus of at least ten per cent, and to forbid the payment of any drafts or checks except on presentation of the pass-book. The object of the latter provision is to prevent savings banks from doing the business of discount.
